

Grange Primary
School

Year 4 Quiz

Grange Primary
School

Monday 4th May

1. Match the correct homophone to the sentence (vein, vane or vein).
The weather shows that the wind is coming in from the east.
2. Complete the missing numbers in the sequence: 175, 125,, 25,
3. True or false. A snail is a mammal.

Tuesday 5th May

1. Can you identify 7 mistakes in the following sentence:
on, tuesday reubens' shoes got wet threw because of the heavy reign
2. Find all the factors of 84 and all the factors of 100
3. Name the capital cities of England, France, Spain, Germany and Norway.

Wednesday 6th May

1. Find synonyms for the words in red to improve the following sentence.
In front of her, the big, brown mountain with sharp rocks came crashing down.
2. Double the following numbers then order them from smallest to largest.
1487, 2468, 480, 624, 3872, 1035
3. True or false. The Romans came before the Stone Age period.

Thursday 7th May

1. Underline the time adverbial phrase in this sentence:
Maya always brushes her teeth before she goes to school.
2. Name 3 gasses, 3 liquids and 3 solids.
3. I need 1200 cm of wood to make a new fence. Wood costs £2 for 1 metre. How much will the wood cost?

Friday 8th May

1) Write an, a or the in the correct part of the sentence:
Yesterday, Sol ate apple in garden next to tree.

2) Which number is the odd one out?

63 81 48 108 27 54

3) Put these statements in order from the beginning to the end.

- Food rests in the stomach and acid is added to break it down
- The teeth cut, tear and grind the food into small pieces
- The small intestine sends the vitamins to the blood which transports it around the body
- The oesophagus pushes the food down the throat and into the stomach
- The large intestine adds water to the waste and sends it to the rectum